

You're Invited!

Belle Isle Blitz

September 8, 2018 ~ 9:30 am – 1 pm

Tour some of the major attractions of Belle Isle in blitz-like fashion on Saturday, September 8, 2018 and end with a picnic style lunch at pavilion 19. This event is sponsored by the Michigan Alliance of Environmental and Outdoor Education (MAEOE).

This tour is a fund raiser for MAEOE and includes visits to three sites on the island, plus an optional fourth after lunch - all included in your ticket! Here's your chance to learn about Belle Isle, its history and finest attractions while supporting the state organization dedicated to environmental literacy in the classroom and connecting students to the nature.

Meet at Shelter #19 on the far east side of the Island to begin. 9:30 am sharp

The tour includes the following sites:

- Belle Isle Aquarium – America's oldest aquarium, opened in 1904
- The Anna Scripps Whitcomb Conservatory – also opened in 1904
- The Dossin Great Lakes Museum – sharing 300 years of maritime history

Register by September 1, 2018

Cost: $50/person (Lunch included) at www.maeoe.com

For more information, contact Marilena at maeoe.treasurer@gmail.com